Kasauli Holiday Home Facility in Himachal Pradesh

Kasauli Holiday Home in Himachal Pradesh is a facility especially designed for senior employees of L&T (Tier 2 and above).

Kasauli Holiday Home View

The siren call of the Himalayas is irresistible. Despite the hill stations of Himachal Pradesh being rapidly developed with concrete jungles elbowing our mountain chalets and the summer stampede making many a gasp for some more cool mountain air, Kasauli has an air of bonhomie and conviviality. In the monsoon months, the Shivalik hills retreat into their peaceful cocoons. According to some, they are best when draped in burnished autumnal colors. Kasauli is situated at an altitude of 6300 ft. in Shivalik Hills, covered with pine trees.

Christ's Church

An old church that was built during the British era is a popular tourist attraction of Kasauli. This beautiful monument has ancient gothic construction, spires, etc. that is typical of an Anglican church. It is dedicated to St. Francis and St. Barnabas. The stained glass décor and lush green surroundings make it a picturesque tourist attraction.

Monkey Point

Monkey Point is the highest point of Kasauli. There is a small temple atop the hill dedicated to Lord Hanuman that offers picturesque views of the plains of Chandigarh and silver lining of River Sutlej flowing through them. An interesting legend states that when Lord Hanuman was returning with 'Sanjeevani Booti' to cure a severely wounded Lakshman, the brother of Lord Rama, his foot touched this peak. Thus, the shape of the hill top is shaped like foot of the Monkey-God.

Lower and Upper Mall

Tourists never miss the two main roads of Kasauli known as Lower and Upper mall. The two roads of Kasauli are lined with beautiful pine, chestnut, oak and juniper trees. While the Lower Mall is known for its eating joints, the Upper Mall does not allow any sort of vehicles in the vicinity. This has enabled to keep it clean and beautiful, thus making a long walk extremely peaceful.
