Tourist places to visit around Puri:

There is plethora of Places for tourist attraction in Puri. Mainly the Jagannath Temple which is one of the Char Dham, Golden Sea Beach, Chilka Lake, Konarak Temple, Chandrabhaga Sea Beach and many more.

The Jagannath Temple

Puri is one of the most renowned places of interest that are situated in the town of Puri. There are several temples in the town, which form one of the major attractions of the place.

The golden beach of Puri is one of the best in the country for Sun, Surf and Sand. For this shining beach, Puri has got its dual importance of a relaxed seaside resort and of an important pilgrimage Centre.

Konark Sun Temple is a 13th century Sun Temple located at Konark, in Odisha. It has been built in the shape of a gigantic chariot with elaborately carved stone wheels, pillars and walls. The temple was originally built at the mouth of the river Chandrabhaga, which was supposedly 229 feet tall.

Chandrabhaga is situated three km east of the Sun temple of Konark, and 30 km from Puri. Until recent years Chandrabhaga was considered a place of natural cure for lepers. But the picturesque view of the sunrise and sunset at this place is enchanting.

Dhuli Giri is the site, on whose plains Kalinga War was fought. Adorned with a rock edict erected by the great emperor Ashoka of Maurya Dynasty, the hills are located on the banks of the Daya River.

Satapada is a lake located on the southeast side of Chilika lagoon which is the largest brackish water lake in Asia. 50 Km. From Puri, on the road leading to Land's End you find Satapada.

Loknath Temple is the famous Siva temple of Puri, located about one kilometer away from the Jagannath Temple, towards the western end. There is a popular belief that Lord Ram had installed this lingam with a Lauka or Pumpkin. The Temple was built during 10th-11th century A.D.
